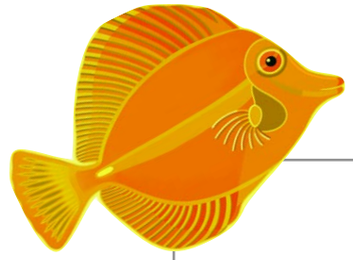
Collaboration Opportunities

Jan barwick®

Inspired by her wandering life, that began in New Zealand, took her to the Pacific Islands, Africa, the Caribbean, the US and eventually Southern France. Jan Barwick's art is representative of the vibrant colors of tropical plants, exotic birds, azure waters, flying fish and captivating sunsets



Bairiki

BY JAN BARWICK

Adapting fine art into product design, Bairiki transforms segments of Jan Barwick's art into luxury home goods, clothing, accessories and gifts. Promoting a positive impact on our world, Bairiki by Jan Barwick donates a portion of profits to the Emily Penn eXXpedition organization.

BAIRIKI INSTALLATIONS

THE GEORGIA AQUARIUM MURALS

Flanking the entrance of the Tropical Diver exhibit at the Georgia Aquarium are two of Jan's spectacular and magical reef murals- The Great Barrier Reef & The Golden Triangle Reef.

These reef scenes were adapted from paintings into printed digital images that have a glow in the dark effect.

Donated to The Georgia Aquarium by Bairiki and Jan Barwick in an effort to bring attention to the plight of the oceans reefs.

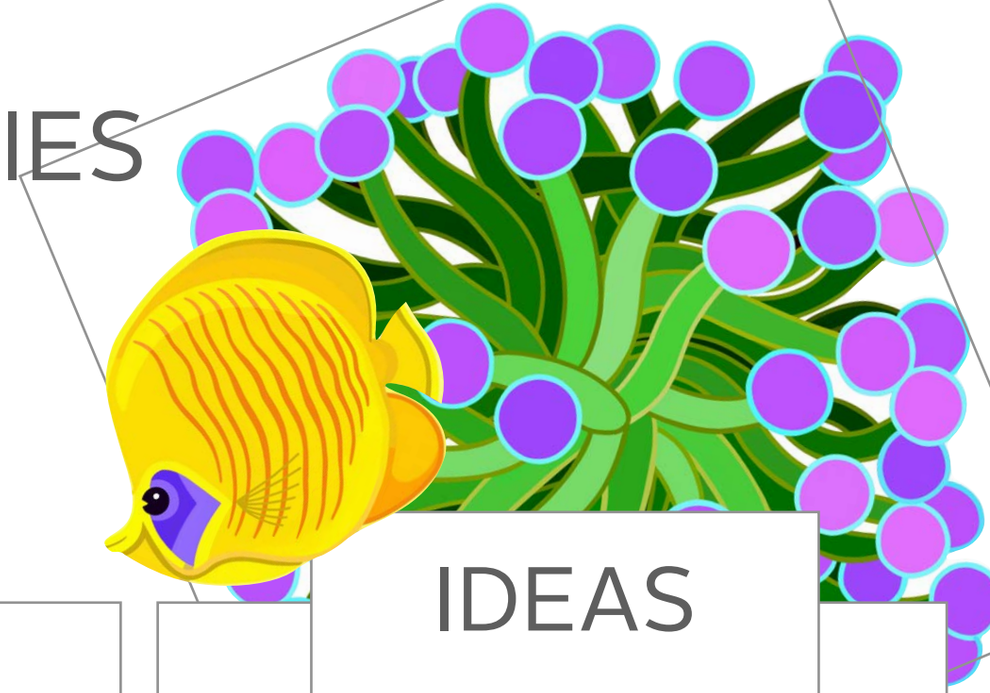
COLLABORATION OPPORTUNITIES



AIM

Should you choose to have a Jan Barwick installation, to drive visitor footfall to the area of the featured mural. Visitors can experience Jan Barwick murals in person and view, and purchase the corresponding Bairiki luxury goods and Beachlife Collection at your Gift Shop.

BENEFITS

This would be an opportunity to bring awareness to the plight of the Oceans and Ecosystems due to pollution and Global warming. The excitement and joy Jan's murals create can be used as an educational tool. A portion of sales from the merchandise will be donated to a foundation that is helping to tackle the Environmental crisis.

IDEAS

- Blog post: Promoting your brand as featuring collaboration with artist and Global Environmental Foundation.
- Educational events featuring the murals for students to learn about the ecosystems.
- Social media competitions to post on Instagram and Tik Tok in front of murals
- Jan Barwick mural signing event with press release.
