Gaudí Jewelry

The beauty of Gaudí's work
turned into jewelry

Barcelona, Art, Modernism... The word that continues the series comes to mind effortlessly: Gaudí. For Joidart team, creating a jewelry collection that summarises the work of the modernist icon is a gift. Playing with the line of the forging of La Pedrera or Palau Güell to turn it into bracelets, capturing the fascinating stained-glass windows of Casa Batlló in earrings, exploring the hexagonal shapes of Gaudí's paving stones, or taking inspiration from the roof structure of Cripta Güell. A complete collection of pieces made in platinum-plated silver and Murano glass, paying homage to the great icon of the city of Barcelona.

The result of this tribute, Gaudí Jewelry, is a collection that captures and interprets the beauty of Gaudí's work, a delight for those who have been captivated by his art and are looking for pieces with soul. Each jewelry piece is presented in a box with the name of the collection and a postcard of the architectural work that served as inspiration for the piece.
